

Hello Applicants!

An exciting opportunity has arisen for a Catering Chef at one of Seattle's most well respected food and beverage Catering companies. We are looking to hire an enthusiastic, self-motivated, customer service driven Sous Chef to join our creative team. This position has very good opportunity for advancement, will involve working in our main kitchen in Magnolia and at exclusive venues, events, businesses and homes in the Seattle area. We offer a family team atmosphere, with a kitchen team of 10-12 including chefs, cooks and culinary students. We specialize in high quality, fresh, local, made from scratch cuisine. We prepare all menu items (including breads and desserts) on premise.

You have to be creative, energetic, a rock star multi-tasker and a quick problem solver who loves to be hands-on. Applicants must be great at interpersonal and customer service skills that translate to working with customers, vendors, managers and staff. You must be a 'get it done' kind of person who loves details and organization.

As a Sous Chef, you must have a friendly and energetic personality; be assertive and decisive. This position is responsible for leading staff during prep and during off-site events. You are responsible for the setup of events, maintaining timelines, acting as point-of-contact for the event hosts, and for ensuring that events run smoothly. This position is responsible for ensuring that the kitchen staff properly represents Kaspars.
