

Washington State Chefs Association/American Academy of Chefs Scholarship Application Procedure

The Washington State Chefs Association and American Academy of Chefs are not for profit organizations founded by dedicated chefs committed to giving back to the future of the industry.

Eligibility: To be considered eligible for a WSCA/AAC Scholarship you must be enrolled and in good standing as a high school senior, at an accredited culinary school or institution in Washington State or part of the apprenticeship program in culinary arts and a member of the ACF. The combination of your work experience, prior education or training and current course of study should indicate preparedness for the pursuit of a career in the culinary arts. You should have a strong academic record, good character references and demonstrate financial need. A 100 point system will be used – see attached.

Only one student per school should apply and only complete applications will be considered. You must send in the following to be considered for a scholarship.

- ✓ Completed Application Form
- ✓ An Essay of at least 500 words telling us why you wish to pursue further education in the culinary field and what your goals are for the future.
- ✓ Official transcript for your current year of study
- ✓ Two letters of recommendation from a supervisor, teacher, counselor, advisor or culinary professional familiar with your skills.
- ✓ Letters confirming your participation in competitions and with volunteer activities.
